

ADR COUNCIL MEETING
October 21, 2004
State Library - Room 218

- I. Welcome - Palmer welcomed everyone to the ADR Council.
- II. Updates:
  - a. DWS Pilot - Darren Rogers, Division of Workforce Services, said his pilot program is ready to move forward next month at the South County Employment Center. They will be holding a staff meeting on November 3 to discuss the issues that might arise. The Mad Trax System will be loaded by November 15.
  - b. CSRB Pilot - David Salazar and Cory Ervin, Department of Human Resource Management, is submitting an article called "Success Turning Conflict Into Resolution" for the Capitol Connections, November 2004 issue. They feel this article should increase public awareness about the pilot program mediation process. There have received many calls inquiring about the ADR process and there is an increase in the number of people who will participate in this process.
  - c. Executive Order - Palmer is expecting some information from Gary Doxey on the executive order. Gary will lead the transition team for Governor Walker in leading and laying out priorities for the new governor.
  - d. ADR Coordinator Position - We are trying to move as soon as possible on the ADR Coordinator position. Governor Walker is very excited about this position and would like to leave it as part of her legacy.
- III. Presentation by SITLA – Bill Mc Brier. Bill Mc Brier works with the Trust Lands Division of the State of Utah. He gave a presentation on a different kind of alternative dispute. He gave us a quick overview of the land in Utah and how he works with different groups who have different interests in purchasing land.
- IV. Other Items:

Michele reminded us of the "Train the Trainer" sessions that will be held on November 15, 2004. If you need more information contact Michele Straube.
